Saturday 4th November

10:00am - 3:30pm

St. Mary Bredin, Canterbury

MAIN SPEAKER: Carrie Sandom

What possible relevance does the book of Nehemiah, written in the 5th century BC, have for us today? We're going to see that it is very relevant. And we shouldn't be surprised by that! The New Testament teaches that the Scriptures were written to make us wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. So, expect the Lord to be at work, strengthening our faith in Him and challenging us to live lives that are worthy of Him.

Carrie is Director of Women's Ministry at the Proclamation Trust and trains women for ministry at the Cornhill Training Course in London. She is passionate about the Lord and His Word, and runs training days and Bible-handling workshops, encouraging women to grow in their love for the Lord and equipping them to teach His Word to others. In her spare time she loves walking, reading whodunits and catching up with friends over a coffee!

SEMINAR OPTIONS (choose one)

Walking Together in Christ as Church Family - Andrea Trevenna, St. Nics, Sevenoaks

Jesus calls us to walk in the light together but this is something Andrea says she failed to do for years, fearing being seen and really known. In this seminar, we will think about how knowing who we are "in Christ"- not just in theory, but in the reality of our real, messy, broken every day lives - transforms the way we walk together, in repentance and faith, as sisters in Christ.

Supporting Teenagers with Mental Health Issues - Rachel Lane, Emmanuel Church, Hastings

More young people than ever are struggling with depression, as well as anxiety disorders and other mental health issues. How can we support them? What hope can we offer them? In this seminar, we will look at what the Bible has to say, both to those who are suffering and to those who are seeking to help. There are no quick fixes or easy answers, but together we will think about what hurts, what helps, and what heals.

Reading the Bible One to One - Carrie Sandom, St. John's Church, Tunbridge Wells

Somebody once said, "If you understand the value of one to one ministry and put its principles into practice, you will be absolute gold dust in any church family." This seminar will cover the WHAT, WHY and HOW of reading the Bible One to One (with Christians and non-Christians) as well as encourage you (whatever your age and stage) to get involved in this strategic work.

Supporting Families with Adopted Children - Claire Parkin, Emmanuel Church, Canterbury

Claire is a mum of two beautiful boys who just so happen to be adopted. The journey to adoption for Claire and her husband was not an easy one but it's been 100% worth it! Join Claire to find out how you can support families in church (and the wider community) who have been knit together via adoption and how we can reflect Jesus back to the hurting children and young people who find themselves in the care system.
